

SUMMARY OF UNIVERSITY OF UTAH EMERITUS RETIREE BENEFITS

Faculty and Staff who, on or after their 60th birthday, commence full retirement after completing five years of continuous service for the University immediately prior to retirement are eligible for the following benefits:

Basic Retiree Benefits:

- University of Utah retiree UCard (available in the UCard Office)
- Enrollment in one of the University's group retiree health plan options. Enrollment is available to the retiree and family members who meet the eligibility requirements of the plans. Retirees and their eligible family members pay the full cost of coverage. Enrollment in certain plans may be available only for those who are eligible for and enrolled in Medicare.
- Bookstore discount.
- Access to Eccles Student Life Center and other university use of physical fitness and recreation facilities, classes, and programs with payment of membership or course fees.
- Use of those Union Building facilities requiring a University UCard, such as movies, bowling, billiards, lectures, etc.
- Discounts on University athletic season tickets.
- Parking with purchase of appropriate pass.
- Borrowing privileges at University library facilities.
- Reduced tuition on University courses as governed by Policy 5-305 and Rule 5-305A.

Additional Privileges for Emeritus Retirees:

- Emeritus UCard entitling the holder to most privileges regularly available to holders of Employee UCards (does not apply to items specifically contracted with outside parties for employees, including the purchase of software through the Office of Software Licensing).
- UTA/TRAX access without payment (Emeritus UCard required).
- Free admission to the Utah Museum of Fine Arts, Utah Museum of Natural History and Red Butte Gardens.
- Reduced prices for season tickets to Pioneer Theatre Company programs and admission without charge to Thursday dress rehearsals of Pioneer Theatre Company productions.
- Emeriti are automatically members of the Emeriti Club. Payment of yearly dues is encouraged, but is voluntary.

- For emeritus faculty members, free membership in the University of Utah Faculty Club. An activity fee may be charged for participation in Faculty Club activities.
- Tuition-free enrollment in University of Utah, Osher, and most Lifelong Learning courses as governed by Policy 5-305 and Rule 5-305A (does not include waiver of special fees). To request this benefit, complete the Tuition Reduction Form at www.hr.utah.edu/forms/lib/TuitionRedForm.pdf and submit it to the University Human Resources Department.
- Free parking in campus “Visitor” lots. Register your car license plate(s) (maximum of 2) with Commuter Services. Provide your name, emeritus ID number and license plate number(s).
- Reduced price tickets, not to exceed two per game, for individual football and basketball home games, subject to availability of unsold seats.
- Listing in the University directory.
- Eligibility to apply for research grants and spend research funds on behalf of the University, subject to all required approvals.
- Use of University office and laboratory facilities, but only to the extent such facilities can be made available by the cognizant department chairperson or dean within the limits of approved space allocations to the department or college.

See <https://emeriti.utah.edu/> for additional information and details.

This list is current as of July 1, 2022. Discount rates, fee or price reductions, and other limitations or conditions applicable to privileges benefits described above, are determined by the cognizant vice president, and are subject to change from time to time, without prior notice.
